

1857-2007

Olive Township Sesquicentennial

The Olive Township Historical Society invites the public to attend events celebrating the 150th anniversary of Olive Township. Mark your calendar to include the following dates:

Monday, May 28, 2007 Memorial Day-

Memorial Day Service-10:30 AM at the Olive Township Cemetery. Immediately following the service will be the Re-Dedication of the WWII Monument- 11:30 AM on the site located at the corner of 120th and Polk Street. The OTHS invites veterans to come in uniform if possible, their families and the public to join in honoring our servicemen and women.

OT Museum /Olive Center School at 11768 Polk Street will be open to the public free of charge from 12:00 AM-2:30PM. Military Memorabilia will be on display along with a special exhibit featuring the WWI Polar Bear Unit.

Saturday, July 28, 2007

Sesquicentennial Community Picnic at the Grace Center located at 11390 Stanton Street from 10:30AM-4:00PM. Group Picture at 12 noon. Many activities featuring local history are planned. If you have any pictures or artifacts to share for this event please contact Sandy Karsten 875-8036.

Friday, August 17 & Saturday, 18, 2007

Country Garden Tour- visit the beautiful gardens of Olive Township residents from 6-8PM Friday & 11AM-4PM. Tickets will be for sale at the OT Museum/Olive Center School the day of the event. Enjoy refreshments and view the Wedding Dresses and Baptismal Gown displays. If you have a gown to share please contact Sandy Karsten.

Friday, December 7 & Saturday, December 8, 2007

Country Christmas Home Tour – Vintage Christmas Ornament Display at the OT Museum. Purchase tickets day of event at Museum.

The OTHS has Ottawa and Ovens Schoolhouse replicas for sale and local history books. The Society is always seeking new members. Call 875-8036 for more information.